

Sitting in the liminal space between the worlds above and the worlds below, is Pleasure Club; a sanctuary where all are welcome to revel and indulge. Through drink, performance, and community, we tell A Pleasure Club Story. Each iteration of our cocktail program speaks to a Story.

Pleasure Club's first Story is that of a Nostalgia Machine. A contraption of purportedly scientific origins (but, it's rumoured, with interference from The Beyond); spinning vapours and distillates from an alchemical, confounding system of extraction and experimentation.

The Machine, through this, weaves in its wake a Portal to the mind—a dimension of memory; where all the elements of Pleasure and Pain lay dormant. Dormant until stirred, awoken, to arise in a glass, poured simply: an invitation to this dimension you may have long forgotten, suppressed; or desperately chased.

Revel in the escapism of your memory, and embrace a togetherness in the feeling. Have your worries shepherded from this worldly shell through the Nostalgia Machine.

Only pleasure remains.
